Equine Liability Warning, Responsibility, & Photo Release

Under NC law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting exclusively from the inherent risks of equine activities, Chapter 99E of the NC General Statutes. The open horse shows presented by Piedmont Horseman's Association (PHA), the owners, employees, operators, trainers, staff, volunteers, and/or show management will in no way be responsible for any loss, damage, injury, or death and it will be a condition of the entry that each exhibitor shall hold the horse show and the host farms blameless for any loss or accident to his or her horse (and shall not sue), horses or equipment that may occur from sickness, fire, or otherwise, including any negligence from the show host. All exhibitors and guests ride at their own risk and fully accept and assume such risks, Nor shall any of the above be held responsible for any article of any kind or nature that may be lost, destroyed, or stolen; and will not be responsible for or liable for injury or death sustained in any way to exhibitors, spectators, employees or any other interested parties. All exhibitors will be held responsible for any loss, damage, injury, or death that may occur, and will be a condition of the entry that each exhibitor shall hold the horse show and will be billed accordingly. Further, I understand the show guide/rules and agree to follow the show guide/rules. I grant to PHA, its representatives and employees the right to take photographs of me and my property in connection with the PHA events and authorize PHA to copyright, use and publish the same in print and/or electronically. I agree that PHA may use such photographs of me with or without my name and for any lawful purpose, including for example such purposes as publicity, illustration, advertising, and Web content.
